

Undergraduate Public Policy Major – Plan of Study

The plan below assumes completion of at least 55 undergraduate credits, including most general education requirements from the Deitrich School of Arts & Sciences. Please refer to the Public Policy Major General Education Requirements worksheet for more details.

Pre-Requisite Courses (7 credits)

- The Public Policy major requires two pre-requisites: a statistics course (STAT 0200 or STAT 1000 or STAT 1100) and an economics course (ECON 0100) – a total of 7 pre-requisite credits.
- Ideally, pre-public policy students will have also taken foundational courses PIA 0101 and PIA 0102 during their freshman and sophomore years.

Breadth Requirements (minimum of 9 credits)

Students must complete a breadth field of study outside of PIA to emphasize the intersections of public policy with other disciplines. This may be satisfied in the following ways:

- Completion of an approved minor or certificate
- Completion of a dual degree (e.g. additional major in political science)

- Completion of an approved 9-credit related area (e.g. regional focus; language training; relevant study abroad; cognate discipline such as political science, economics, history, sociology, urban studies, public health, or social work)

Total Major Credits (excluding the ECON and STAT pre-requisites): 42 credits

*At least 120 credits are required for graduation with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Public Policy.
